

The North Augusta School of Dance LLC provides a Scholarship Program to students in need of financial assistance. Application information is listed below. 1 application per account/household. Application must be completed in full and once submitted, changes or additions will not be accepted. Application and its information are kept confidential and the NASD does not sell, share or post application information. All decisions are final.

Please keep this Cover Sheet for your information and records.

- Scholarship money covers ONLY class tuition.
- Tuition does NOT include required registration fees, attire, team fees, camps, events, master classes or costumes.
- Scholarship money is credited to accounts through the NASD only and physical money is not handed out or awarded.

Submit the required documents:

✓	A completed application form.
✓	*Non-enrolled students must completely fill out & attach registration form
✓	1 letter of recommendation.
✓	1 of the following options to provide proof of household income: Paycheck stubs, tax return or bank statements. Provide most recent.

- If you are already currently enrolled, approved applications only provide financial assistance moving forward with future tuition payments. No credits or back reimbursements.
- Student awarded scholarships along with siblings, parents or guardians agree to uphold behavior, work ethic, integrity while in class and on NASD property at all times. Students must honor the required attire needed. Attire and or shoes are not provided or covered under scholarships.
- Scholarships are season to season and scholarships do not roll over into new seasons. You must re-apply each season.
- Each application is carefully reviewed by our NASD Scholarship Committee. Scholarships are assessed on financial needs, good grades and behavior. Dance ability is a non-determining factor. Once application is submitted, allow 3 to 5 business days for approvals. Approvals are valid for 30 days.
- Scholarships awarded can be partial or full funded scholarships and are based on each application received and funds our committee has available on hand.
